FROM : THOMAS C. RIES, SA

SUBJECT: ISIDOR FEINSTEIN STONE, wa
ESPIONAGE - R3/26/92
Classified by 983 rdd/tay
Declassify on: OADR

On September 10, 1953, at the request of SA [redacted] the writer interviewed [redacted] concerning the captioned subject, at which time the informant advised as follows: (S)(u)

During the period that the informant was an active member of the Communist Party, [redacted] had been associated with numerous Communist Front organizations. The informant recalled that while in the Party, and attending many of the functions of these Communist Front groups the informant had met STONE and had observed STONE in attendance at some of these meetings.

[redacted] does not recall ever having seen STONE at enclosed meetings when only CP members were present, although, the informant was of the opinion STONE was a Communist when he was employed by the "Nation". (S)(u)

[redacted] observed that on occasion STONE had deviated from the Communist Party line and as a result was criticized in the "Daily Worker" by Foreign Editor STAROBIN. This indicated to the informant that although STONE might have been a Communist, he was not under the complete control and domination of the Communist Party, but because of his established eminence as a writer, the Communist Party tolerated these infrequent reactions. The informant had no knowledge of any espionage activities on the part of STONE, but offered the opinion that STONE was capable of such activity because he impressed the informant as being completely pro-Soviet and a staunch supporter of Russia with the exception of his support of Zionism, which stand was opposed by the Communist Party. (S)(u)

Again referring to STONE's deviation from the official Communist Party line the informant once mentioned this, in about 1944, to JAMES ANSARA, an individual known to informant to be a CP member. ANSARA indicated to the informant that "we can rely upon STONE" and that "most of us have deviated at times." With reference to STONE's position on Zionism the informant advised that Zionism favored giving the British a position in the Middle East, and in Palestine in particular where the British could establish bases from which to attack Russia. STONE favored this stand and was castigated in the "Daily Worker" by JOSEPH STAROBIN.

EMIL KOPAC, Oshkosh, Nebr., is a retired farmer who has resided in that community over twenty-five years. In the late 1930's, KOPAC was injured in an automobile accident and has been considered mentally deranged since that time. The Omaha Division has received several complaints in the past concerning his, KOPAC's, receiving Communist literature but an inquiry at Oshkosh, Nebr., reflected that his acquaintances consider KOPAC mentally unbalanced and do not consider his literature seriously. No info has been developed to indicate that KOPAC is affiliated with the CP.

In view of the above information, no further investigation will be conducted in the Omaha Division concerning KOPAC.

The Hutton Settlement at Spokane, Washington is an orphans' home, built and endowed by Hutton upon his death. Hutton was an orphan who became extremely wealthy and the orphanage is now run by the Hutton Estate.

Mrs. VIVIAN REED, Hutton Estate Office, Hutton Building, Spokane, advised that the estate records reflect that one ROBERT J. MCKENZIE was employed at the Settlement as an extra farmer on 6/27/53 and is still so employed. Mrs. REED said that MCKENZIE had previously worked with the Hutton Settlement but no records of this employment were available. She pointed out that the farming work was seasonal and that MCKENZIE would undoubtedly be laid off this Fall. She described MCKENZIE as a steady worker who was very reliable. She advised that she felt he was somewhat above average in comparison with the general run of farm labor. She said she could furnish no additional information concerning MCKENZIE other than he appeared to be in his 50's.

No record of MCKENZIE was located at the Spokane Credit Bureau, Spokane Police Department, or Spokane Sheriff's Office.

Seattle indices contained no information concerning MCKENZIE.

Re San Diego letter to Washington Field dated August 11, 1953, and New York letter to Albany September 17, 1953.

Motor Vehicle Bureau records here reflect New York commercial license 104734 was issued to the Town of Theresa, New York, for a 1937 Oshkosh truck. Trailer license 104734 was issued to WARREN WIELT, 1605 Van Antwerp Road, Schenectady, New York for a 1949 Fruehauf trailer.

Albany indices negative on both of the above registered owners.

Motor Vehicle Bureau here has advised that this license could likewise have been issued to a suburban car and have further advised that the license number could probably have been 1Q 4734 rather than 104734 since as referenced letter pointed out the car whereon this plate was displayed was described as a late model Cadillac.

In view of the above, it is suggested that the New York Office contact the Motor Vehicle Bureau, New York City, who have issued licenses suburban 104734 (1952) and (1952) 1Q 4734, and determined their registered owners and comply with the request set forth in referenced San Diego letter dated August 11, 1953. ISIDOR FEINSTEIN STONE, was.
ESPIONAGE - R

The following items which it is believed will be of interest to the Bureau, have appeared in recent issues of "I. F. Stone's Weekly" a Washington newsletter edited and published by the subject.

In his September 19, 1953, issue (Volume I, Number 33) STONE states as follows under the heading, "White-Washing McCarthy":

"In an interview at San Diego on August 21 (see the 'Weekly' of September 5), J. Edgar Hoover declared his friendship and admiration for McCarthy, and called the Senator an 'honest' man. Two weeks later the Department of Justice, perhaps testing the temper of public opinion, let it be known that a 'lower echelon' of lawyers had found no basis for indicting McCarthy after a seven month study of the Senate privileges and elections subcommittee report on his financial operations. The Senate report showed that McCarthy and his administrative assistant banked $268,000 from 1948 to 1952 and that almost $105,000 of these deposits had 'not been identified as to source.'

"The first task of any inquiry would be to try and determine whence, how and why such huge sums flowed into the accounts of the Senator and his assistant and alter ego. If the FBI had investigated and found no impropriety, one would expect the fact to be announced. But there is no indication in any of the news stories that there has been any investigation at all. On the contrary they give the distinct impression that all that happened is that Department of Justice lawyers took the facts as presented by the Senate report and on that minimum basis determined whether there was any ground for prosecution. Part of their conclusion is merely that no charges can be brought unless persons who paid sums to the Senator were to complain that they had been defrauded. This sort of technical legal analysis is a very far cry from a real investigation.

"But how have a real investigation when the head of the Federal Bureau of Investigation calls McCarthy a friend and terms him 'honest?' On this the silence even of the anti McCarthy press is thunderously eloquent. The combination of McCarthy and Hoover really has them scared."

In his September 26, 1953, issue (Volume I, Number 34) under the heading, "Quid Pro Quo" the following one-sentence paragraph appears:

"If Beria shows up in Washington, we are prepared to expedite J. Edgar Hoover's escape to Moscow."

In the same issue under the heading, "Whispers Around the Capital" STONE states:

"Federal Judge Luther Youngdahl, once Republican Governor of Minnesota, the judge who handed down the recent Lattimore decision, did not add to his popularity with the G-men and crypto-Fascists of Washington by making a speech at the eight annual National Conference on Citizenship in which he said, 'Hatred of Communism is not enough to make for good citizenship. . .'"

Espionage - R

On October 8, 1953, the results of the trash cover on Stone were inspected at the D. C. Incinerator, 2nd and O Sts., SE. [REDACTED] at the incinerator advised that he had been told by the driver of the truck which picks up Stone's trash, that the Stone family had moved as of September 28, 1953. (S) (u)

Immediate investigation was undertaken to determine if the Stone family had, in fact, moved from 5618 Nebraska Ave., N.W. An interview under an appropriate pretext was had with [REDACTED] 5616 Nebraska Avenue, next door neighbors to Stone. They advised that the Stones had not moved, in fact, both had seen Mr. and Mrs. Stone on that morning, October 8. They advised that Stone was not doing too well financially with his paper, and could not afford an office staff, and that for some time now, Mrs. Stone had been doing the necessary clerical and secretarial work at the offices of the "Weekly". (They said also that Mr. and Mrs. Stone leave for work together each morning.) [REDACTED] pointed out Stone's current financial responsibility, stating that he has a daughter, [REDACTED] at Smith College, a son, [REDACTED] in his first year at MIT, and a son at Wilson High School, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Chevy Chase Post Office, was contacted, on the same date, and advised that the Stones have not moved, and that he too had seen the Stones that morning. [REDACTED] volunteered that Stone gets quite a bit of mail, and that most of it comes from the New York City area. He said also that Stone is gone for two or three days at a time, on occasion and that he, [REDACTED] is of the opinion that Stone makes trips to New York City.

Observation at the offices of "I.F. Stone's Weekly", room 205, 301 E. Capitol Street, revealed that the office light was on, and the office was occupied, but the occupant could not be seen or identified. Tenants of the 2nd floor at this address, along with Stone, are the following: Room 203 - Dr. I. I. Rains; Research Advisory Group. Room 201 - United World Federalists, Inc. Room 206 - James W. Somerville, Attorney; Oliver P. Lerch, Attorney; Chesterfield Group; Kent Group; Normandy Group. Nothing is known concerning the above fellow tenants at the present time.

Reurlet August 27, 1953, to New York.

"R. S. HENRY, 4543 Charleswood, Memphis, Tennessee," appears to be identical with "Mrs. RAE S. HENRY, 4543 Charleswood Avenue, Memphis 17, Tennessee", who is referred to in New Haven letter of December 8, 1952, to Memphis. This letter reflected that Mrs. HENRY's name was obtained in the following manner by the New Haven Office:

"On October 22, 1952, Mr. HYMAN HAVES, Connecticut Regional Director of the Anti-Defamation League, B'Nai B'Rith, 125 Temple Street, New Haven, Connecticut, advised that a Mr. H. L. BAUMAN, owner of the AAA Letter Shop Company, 30 Elm Street, New Haven, Connecticut, had advised him that he had been requested by JEROME DAVIS to stamp some 4,000 envelopes which had already been addressed to various individuals and organizations throughout the United States and several foreign countries. These envelopes were contained in a cardboard box which had been addressed to JEROME DAVIS, 489 Ocean Avenue, West Haven, Connecticut, and had the following return address:

Frederick Blossom
East Pulatka
Florida

"Also contained in the cardboard box was a manila envelope, not addressed, containing 26 documents sponsored by the Communist Party and Communist Party front groups.

"Mr. HAVES voluntarily made the above documents available to the New Haven Office on October 22, 1952. Documents which pertain to individuals or organizations located in the area covered by your office are being enclosed.

100-22286-154
"Mr. H. L. BAUMAN advised on October 22, 1952, that the above mentioned envelopes had been delivered to WILLARD UPHAUS, 66 Edgewood Avenue, New Haven, Connecticut, upon the request by JEROME DAVIS. WILLARD UPHAUS reportedly was to place literature

JHK:FMC

which was in his possession in these stamped envelopes. The subject matter of this literature was not known to Mr. BAUMAN or Mr. HAVES. Mr. BAUMAN further stated he was still in possession of many envelopes which were not claimed by WILLARD UPHAUS and which were going to be destroyed by Mr. BAUMAN. He made these envelopes available to the New Haven Office.

"The names of the individuals who were to receive mail from WILLARD UPHAUS and who reside in the area covered by your office are being forwarded as an enclosure to this letter. "

The above is the only reference to Mrs. HENRY in the files of this office.

Re physical surveillance log dated October 23, 1953, which reflects that STONE picked up a leather briefcase at the Trailways Bus Depot at about 10:45 P.M. on that date.

[REDACTED], an employee of the baggage room, Trailways Bus Terminal, 12th and New York Avenue, N. W., residence 436 6th Street, N. E., advised that he recalled the subject picking up a brief case on Friday evening, October 23, 1953, because of the following circumstances.

STONE initially contacted another employee in the baggage room and that employee consulted [REDACTED] as STONE indicated he was calling for a briefcase and there were no briefcases in the baggage room. [REDACTED] then ascertained from STONE that his briefcase had been wrapped in brown paper. The baggage room was then researched and subject's briefcase which was wrapped in heavy brown wrapping paper was located. Prior to locating the briefcase [REDACTED] indicated to STONE that the company usually did not express briefcases. STONE indicated that he had on many occasions previously shipped his briefcase by having it wrapped in heavy brown wrapping paper.

[REDACTED], General Baggage Agent, Safe Trails Inc., head office 620 T Street, N. E., advised that waybill number E-10174 reflects that one package was expressed by M. STONE 46 West 57th Street, New York City, to I. F. STONE "201 Or 301 W. Capitol", Washington, D. C. He advised that this package was shipped from New York City on October 23, 1953, and was probably handled at the Port Authority Bus Terminal, New York City. He advised the receipt for this package was signed by I. F. STONE when he claimed the package at Trailways Bus Depot.

Of possible interest to the Bureau is the following, which appeared in the October 3, 1953, issue (Vol. 1, #35) of "I. F. STONE'S WEEKLY", the Washington newsletter edited and published by the subject.

In an article captioned "McCARTHY, LAMONT AND MILITARY INTELLIGENCE", STONE discusses what he believes to be the reasons for Senator McCARTHY's having turned his investigative efforts on the military which he describes as "far more powerful and cohesive a bureaucracy than the State Department".

STONE says:

"One is the long-time ambition of McCARTHY's ally, J. EDGAR HOOVER, to take over all intelligence, to bring the Secret Service, CIA, OSS and the various intelligence branches of the armed services under his control. The Congressional investigating committees and the rightist papers with which HOOVER has friendly relations have helped cast suspicion on CIA and OSS before."

STONE's only employment as far as is known to Washington T-1 is the editing and publishing of his Washington newsletter "I. F. STONE's Weekly". STONE's activities include the gathering of information from his various sources in Washington, the actual writing of the paper and necessary office work in connection therewith. The subject's wife has been working almost daily in the offices of "I. F. STONE's Weekly" at 301 East Capitol Street, Washington, during the last three weeks, according to the informant.

Washington T-2, of unknown reliability, has advised that in his opinion STONE is not doing too well financially with his paper and cannot afford an office staff. The informant said that for sometime now MRS. STONE has been doing the necessary clerical and secretarial work at the offices of the "Weekly". The informant pointed out STONE's current financial responsibility, stating that he has a daughter, [redacted] at Smith College, a son, [redacted] in his first year at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and a son, [redacted] at Wilson High School.

STONE continues to edit and publish his Washington newsletter "I. F. STONE's Weekly". It is a four-page, letter-sized paper consisting of three pages of editorial comment by STONE on issues of the day and a fourth page similar in content headed "JENNINGS PERRY'S Page", which is apparently contributed by PERRY. PERRY has been previously identified and characterized in the course of this investigation.

Information Regarding Publication of the "Weekly":

The "Weekly" for October 10, 1953 (Volume 1, #36) contains the statement required by law as to the ownership, management and circulation of the paper. This statement indicates that the publisher, editor, managing editor and business manager are all I. F. STONE, 5618 Nebraska Avenue, NW, Washington, D. C. The owner is I. F. STONE's Weekly, Incorporated, 301 East Capitol Street, Washington, and I. F. STONE, ESTHER M. STONE, [redacted] and [redacted] all of 5618 Nebraska Avenue, NW, Washington. The average number of copies of each issue of this publication sold or distributed through the mails or otherwise to paid subscribers during the twelve months preceding the date of this statement was indicated to be 8204.

[redacted] Darby Printing Company, 24th and Douglas Streets, NE, Washington, advised on October 29, 1953 that his company had printed "I. F. STONE's Weekly" for approximately three months until September 21, 1953, at which time STONE had advised him that he could get his printing done elsewhere at a cheaper rate. [redacted] stated that his firm had printed about 7,500 copies of the STONE paper each week and that the cost to STONE varied from $200 to $228 for each printing. [redacted] stated that his firm does not have in its files a mailing list for the "Weekly" but that he personally recalled that the paper was sent to a large number of editors of newspapers and to many schools and colleges. [redacted] said that his dealings with STONE had been strictly concerned with business matters and he characterized STONE as an astute businessman.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~Review of Recent Issues of the "Weekly":~~SECRET~~

A review of recent issues of "I. F. STONE's Weekly", (Volume 1, #30, dated August 15, 1953, through Volume 1, #38, dated October 24, 1953), revealed the following editorial comment by STONE which may be considered pertinent:

In the "Weekly" for August 15, 1953, (Volume 1, #30), STONE discusses the pending deportation case of MRS. SOPHIE GERSON, the wife of SIMON GERSON. SIMON GERSON is the New York State Chairman of the Communist Party, according to an article in the August 7, 1953 issue of the "Brooklyn Eagle", newspaper and resides at 88-60 18th Avenue, Brooklyn, New York. The Communist Party has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Under "New Low in Deportation Drive", STONE says:

"Hardly a day passes without a press release from the Department of Justice announcing that another deportation action has been begun against some radical, past or present. In last week's batch was the news that Attorney General BROWNELL had directed the filing of a petition to cancel the naturalization of SOPHIE GERSON, Brooklyn, N. Y. This is the story behind the news release.

"SOPHIE GERSON is the wife of SIMON W. GERSON, one of two Communists acquitted by Federal Judge EDWARD J. DIMOCK last September in New York's second Smith Act trial. GERSON, State legislative director of the Communist party, thereupon went on a speaking tour in defense of his fellow defendants. The acquittal and the tour did not add to his popularity in certain government circles.

"The first hint of unpleasantness was a note in HOWARD RUSHMORE's weekly column for the New York 'Journal-American', saying that GERSON would soon have something to talk about, when someone close to him was deported.

"MRS. GERSON was born in Russia and came to this country at the age of 12. She has two children--a "boy, 14, and a girl, 7. She was naturalized in 1945, with a group of women whose husbands were in the armed forces. GERSON was then an infantryman with the U. S. Army.

"The Department press release says she was arrested in 1928 in New York, in 1929 at Gastonia, North Carolina, and in 1931 at Paterson, N. J. She was a labor organizer and these were strike arrests. The most 'famous' of these strikes, according to the Department of Justice, was the 'Gastonia mill strike of 1929'. There were no convictions. Now this record of more than two decades ago is being raked up. This is one way to even scores with an accused man after a Judge directs a verdict of acquittal."

STONE devotes his entire issue of the "Weekly" for September 5, 1953, (Volume 1, #31), to a feature article captioned "The J. EDGAR HOOVER-McCARTHY Axis". This article is reproduced here in its entirety:

"McCARTHY is America's most controversial figure. J. EDGAR HOOVER is its most feared. When HOOVER praises McCARTHY, that would seem to be page one news. Remarkably little attention was paid by the press last week to the interview the chief of the G-men gave the San Diego 'Evening Tribune' of August 22. 'The New York Times' buried the story in a three-paragraph 'shirt-tail' to another McCARTHY controversy on page 11 of its August 24 issue. For some reason the story did not appear in the Washington 'Post' and the Washington 'Times-Herald' until two days later on August 25. The 'Times-Herald', ultra rightist and virtually a house organ for both HOOVER and McCARTHY, buried the story inside, perhaps because someone felt the G-man had been indiscreet.

"One aspect of the indiscretion was touched on by an intrepid reporter at Attorney General HERBERT BROWNELL's press conference here three days later. The Department of Justice is

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

"supposed to be--and BROWNELL insisted that it still is--investigating that Senate report of last January on McCARTHY's financial manipulations. The investigating of the Department of Justice is done through--the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The head of the FBI in the San Diego interview called McCARTHY 'earnest and honest'. A reporter asked the Attorney General whether he thought it appropriate 'for a member of the Justice Department to make a statement evaluating the character of a person whose affairs are under study in the Department'.

"The Attorney General declined to comment. He said he had not yet seen the full text of HOOVER's statement. 'I have full confidence and admiration for MR. HOOVER', BROWNELL added. 'I like to stress that whenever possible.' HOOVER seems to have a similar confidence and admiration for the Senator he is presumably investigating. Both HOOVER and McCARTHY were registered at the same seaside hotel in La Jolla--by coincidence the G-man said--when HOOVER was interviewed. It will take a very brave FBI man to turn in anything unfavorable on McCARTHY after the Hoover statement.

"What The G-Man Chief Said of Low Blow Joe

"McCARTHY is a former Marine,' HOOVER said. 'He was an amateur boxer. He's Irish. Combine those, and you're going to have a vigorous individual, who is not going to be pushed around.

"I am not passing,' HOOVER continued more cautiously after this bit of positive hero-worship, 'on the technique of McCARTHY's committee, or other Senate committees. That's the Senator's responsibility. But the investigating committees do a valuable job. They have subpoena rights without which some vital investigations could not be accomplished.

"I never knew Senator McCARTHY,' HOOVER went on, 'until he came to the Senate. I've come to know him well, officially and personally. I view him as a friend and believe he so views me.

"Certainly, he is a controversial man. He is earnest and he is honest. He has enemies. Whenever you attack subversives of any kind, Communists, Fascists, even the Ku Klux Klan, you are going to be the victim of the most extremely vicious criticism that can be made.

"I know," HOOVER said. "But sometimes a knock is a boost. When certain elements cease their attacks on me, I know I'm slipping."

"An Advantage Hitler Lacked

"This admission of close relations and declaration of friendship may give McCARTHY an advantage Hitler lacked--the advantage of close liaison and support from the secret police of the government he wants to take over.

"HOOVER's closet is well stocked with skeletons. Many in the capital fear the stray bones he may rattle. Few who criticize McCARTHY dare criticize HOOVER. Some who criticize McCARTHY will go easy if they know he has the G-man's backing. The silence of the nation's editorial writers on this San Diego interview is more eloquent than any comment they could make. There was similar silence in July when at McCARTHY's worst moment (the forced firing of J. B. MATTHEWS) he held a conference with HOOVER and hired the head of the New York FBI office, FRANK P. CARR, to replace MATTHEWS as McCARTHY's staff director. I called attention to this in the 'Weekly' for July 25 but saw it mentioned nowhere else. The HOOVER conference and the CARR appointment helped to bolster McCARTHY at a bad time.

"Why Editors Look The Other Way

"A HOOVER-McCARTHY axis must also spike the feeble popguns of those faint-hearted liberals whose anti-McCARTHY line has been, 'let the FBI do it.' This is how the FBI does it. The same

"mish-mash of tenuous guilt-by-association, anonymous gossip and slander on which the Congressional investigators feed so lushly is exactly the same mish-mash the COPLON case turned up in the FBI files.

"There is reason to believe that frustrated FBI men have been slipping information of this kind to Congressional witch hunters for a long time, long before McCARTHY. The New Dealers often used Congressional inquiries when frustrated; the most famous case was when Standard Oil negotiated a consent decree with Attorney General FRANCIS BIDDLE after Pearl Harbor in the hope thereby of hiding its past relations with I. G. FARBEN. THURMAN ARNOLD, then Assistant Attorney General, foiled this by having himself subpoenaed by the TRUMAN investigating committee, through which he told the whole story. The FBI files would be a similar gold mine for McCARTHY, and McCARTHY can also be useful to the FBI.

"The FBI is very smart publicity-wise. There was a spate of stories last week-end on Communist plots to smear the FBI. A 'highly secret Communist party document' to this effect was given to the North American Newspaper Alliance (see Washington 'Sunday Star', August 30, 'Communist Party Directs Comrades to Smear FBI'). The Washington 'Times-Herald' next day carried a front page banner headline, 'U. S. Reds Plot Campaign to Smear FBI.' VICTOR RIESEL in last Sunday's New York 'Mirror' reported mysteriously that such orders had been sent out in retaliation for the arrest of two Communist Smith Act fugitives, THOMPSON and STEINBERG. So any editor who comments on the HOOVER-McCARTHY alliance and its political implications risks suspicion of links with the Communist underground.

"The Strange Case of the National Lawyers Guild

"An example of the chores a Congressional investigating committee can do for the FBI is

"provided by the case of the National Lawyers Guild. One day in January, 1950, CLIFFORD J. DURR, then president of the Guild, sent the press a notice that two days later he would hold a press conference in Washington and release a 40-page report made by a special committee of the Guild 'concerning wiretapping, and other illegal and offensive practices carried on by the FBI . . . based upon the careful analysis of some 800 pages of FBI reports introduced in the COPLON case.'

"The night before the press conference, Congressman RICHARD NIXON (now Vice-President), then a leading member of the House Un-American Activities Committee telephoned the Associated Press, United Press and International News Service. NIXON said he had just written a letter to Chairman WOOD of the House Committee and wanted to release it for immediate publication. NIXON said he hadn't had time to make copies. The letter was dictated to the wire services over the telephone.

"The letter provided the morning papers with sensational headlines as a backdrop for the press conference and the release of the report criticizing the FBI. NIXON's letter asked the House Un-American Activities Committee to investigate the Lawyers' Guild as a Communist front. In its report later that year the House Committee said it had 'no doubt' that the Guild's attack on the FBI was 'part of an overall Communist strategy aimed at weakening our defenses against the international Communist conspiracy.' The report recommended that the Guild be placed by the Attorney General on the subversive list and asked the American Bar Association to consider 'whether or not membership in the National Lawyers' Guild, a subversive organization, is compatible with admissibility to the American bar'.

"It has taken three years to achieve the goal. BROWNELL capitulated where even McGRATH and McGRANERY held out. Last week at the annual meeting of the American Bar Association, he announced that he would blacklist the Guild. The ABA's House of

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~~~SECRET~~

"Delegates only four years ago voted down a recommendation from its Board of Governors that Guild members be barred from membership in the ABA. This year the delegates applauded BROWNELL's announcement, and approved without debate a resolution urging the disbarment of all Communist lawyers. In an editorial pointed toward this year's meeting, the August issue of the 'American Bar Association Journal' had boasted that men in the law 'have a special sensitivity, like a musician's sensitivity to disharmony, for anything that threatens liberty.' Like so many convention-goers, these members of the bar seem to have left their special sensitivities at home.

"'Liberty Under Law'

"Neither the Attorney General's address nor the disbarment resolution could easily be reconciled with the theme of this year's Diamond Jubilee meeting of the bar association, which was 'Liberty Under Law.' Since 'it is not unlawful to belong to the Communist party,' as the conservative Washington 'Star' noted with misgiving in its comment on the resolution last Sunday, 'the question really is whether a lawyer should be subjected to the severe penalty of disbarment for doing something that is sanctioned by our law.'

"The Attorney General disclosed that while he was summoning the Lawyer Guild for a hearing, he had made up his mind in advance.

"This matter of allowing a hearing before black-listing has a long history. Two years ago the U. S. Supreme Court ruled that the Attorney General could not blacklist organizations without some form of notice and hearing. The Department of Justice has been fighting a rear-guard action against that decision (341 U. S. 123) ever since. Last week the government lost another round in the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals here in the lengthy technical litigation waged to make the Attorney General obey the Supreme Court. In strategic retreat, BROWNELL

"has adopted what purports to be a form of notice and hearing. On this the courts have yet to pass. Light was shed on BROWNELL's new procedure by his speech to the Bar Association. This revealed that he had not served notice of hearing of the accused organization until the very day he announced his unfavorable verdict against it in an address to its old rival, the American Bar Association.

"Here is the passage so the reader can judge for himself. 'I have conducted the study,' BROWNELL said of his inquiry into the Lawyers Guild, 'with great care. I am now prepared to make this determination public. It has been clear that at least since 1946 the leadership of the Guild has been in the hands of card-carrying Communists and fellow travelers . . . I have today served notice to it to show cause why it should not be designated on the Attorney General's list of subversive organizations.'

"The Attorney General's Occult Powers

"The speech showed a mind firmly closed in advance to any evidence which might be produced in favor of the accused. The National Lawyers Guild, a product of a New Deal era revolt against the stuffiness and reactionary outlook of the ABA, has been a Popular Front but not a straight party line organization. It has many non Communists among its members. Their influence has been felt, from the Guild's condemnation of the attack on Finland in 1939 through its defense of Yugoslav lawyers after the TITO break down to its 1950 resolution supporting 'the action of the United Nations in opposing the aggression of North Korea against South Korea.'

"The Attorney General already has at hand a rationalization with which to dismiss such evidence. 'On every major issue,' he told the bar association, the Guild 'has steadfastly followed the Party line . . . excepting only those issues so notorious that

"their espousal would too clearly demonstrate the Communist control." Such occult standards are a danger to any individual or organization on the Left, since differences with the Communists may thus be dismissed as mere camouflage. SECRET

"MR. BROWNELL's new regulations match this mentality. The hearing board or officer is authorized 'to receive as evidence on behalf of the Attorney General information or documentary material, in summary form or otherwise, without requiring disclosure of classified security information or the identity of confidential informants.' Witnesses 'shall be subject to cross-examination, provided that no witness on behalf of the government shall be required to disclose classified security information or the identity of confidential informants'. As in the loyalty procedures of the past, the nature of the evidence and the source of the accusations may be kept secret. This is not a hearing in any real sense of the word.

"Nobody Discusses The Real Issues

"The free atmosphere America knew in the past has become so corrupted that the real issues are hardly discussed anymore. One is whether the Attorney General has any right to proscribe whole organizations as 'subversive,' a standard still undefined and incapable of definition. Another is whether freedom can be preserved in America if Communists are made a special class outside the law--in the resultant hunt to determine who is a Communist everybody is pushed toward conformity for safety's sake. A third is whether the right to counsel can be preserved for radicals in political prosecutions if lawyers suspected of Communism are in danger of disbarment. Already in an atmosphere where clients are judged by their lawyers and lawyers by their clients it is becoming very difficult for accused radicals to find counsel.

"America is rapidly moving back toward a situation Anglo-American law has not known for

"three centuries. Until the English Revolution of 1688, defense counsel was not allowed persons accused of 'treason'--then as loose a term as 'subversion' and 'disloyalty' are today. Ever since Attorney General, now Supreme Court Justice, TOM CLARK in 1949 urged disbarment of lawyers defending Communists, the Department of Justice has sought to destroy the right to counsel in radical cases. Even as it is, a lawyer who takes a radical case, even at the direction of a court, is in danger of losing much of his private practice. This is the application of lynch attitudes.

"The drive to disbar radical lawyers illustrates the tendency of the 'loyal' orbit to be widened by one special excuse after another. It began on the plea of a need to protect official secrets, widened out to cover every Federal employe however unimportant, and then was extended to defense plants, docks and the maritime industry. Teachers, radio commentators, librarians, book publishers and newspapermen have all been affected since on the ground that they dealt with ideas and therefore must be policed against 'dangerous thoughts' Japanese style. The rationalization in the case of lawyers is that they are 'officers of the court'.

"As applied to the disbarment of radical lawyers, this recalls totalitarian practice. The United Nations report on forced labor in discussing the Soviet Union quotes VISHINSKY as saying that 'The first requirement of a defending counsel is a high sense of political responsibility . . . an ability to defend his point of view and give battle for his beliefs, not in the interests of his client but in the interests of socialist construction and the interests of our state.' The UN report comments that such a conception of defense counsel and the restrictions it places on the defense 'considerably increase the risk that the penal system and the system of corrective labor will be used for the oppression of those who are opposed to the régime.' The same comment may well apply here soon.

"The Witch Hunt and Peace

"The stepped up activity of the witch hunters, the Attorney General's capitulation, the emerging HOOVER-McCARTHY axis, the Jenner spy scare report (which we hope to discuss in detail later), are of international as well as domestic concern. Western Europe must realize that the strategy is to intensify an atmosphere in which it becomes more difficult that ever for the EISENHOWER Administration to make a firm peace in the Far East.

"The White House, like the rank and file of both parties, does not want a resumption of the fighting. But it is as if EISENHOWER had exhausted his meager powers of leadership in achieving a precarious truce. The enemies of peace--the China Lobby Senators, the military bureaucracy, the aviation lobby, the anti-Communist fanatics--are working hard to make it difficult to avoid a renewal of the war if RHEE--as he plans--starts it up again. Increased repression at home is part of their strategy."

In his September 12, 1953 issue, (Volume 1, #32), STONE discusses the recently published report of the Jenner Committee (United States Senate Committee on the Judiciary, the Subcommittee to Investigate the Administration of the Internal Security Act and Other Security Laws). It will be recalled that this report titled "Interlocking Subversion in Government Departments" received wide spread publicity. Of this report STONE says:

"It will be a long time before we can disentangle half-truth and whole lie in the witch hunt. It will also be a long time before we know the full extent of the sinister forces pumping up the Communist bogey beyond all proportions to serve their own purposes. The New Deal was a kind of Popular Front, in which Communists played their part. There were Communists and Communist party-liners in Washington, some in important jobs. Their position, their numbers and

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ SECRET

"their influence are being exaggerated beyond all reason. But the liberal press or what remains of it is too panic-stricken to discuss the report. To disparage Communist influence and power is dangerous, as it was dangerous in an earlier Inquisition to doubt the power and cleverness of the Devil.

"This Popular Front, far from overturning the government by force and violence, brought America out of the tailspin of a great depression, made democracy work, proved that social reform was possible by peaceful means--and did so at a time when other countries were turning to dictatorship of right or left. It gave the workers and farmers of America new faith in their country and their society. It taught radicals who came to Washington a new respect for democratic processes as it taught not a few big business men a new respect for the meaning of free government. The 'security risk' of having a few Communists or Communist sympathizers in the government was far less than the security risk we would have taken if the American people in 1932 had taken the other road--the road of repression and reaction onto which we are being pushed today.

"The purpose of the Jenner report is to defame the memory of a great period in American history; to make EISENHOWER a prisoner of the China Lobby; and to intensify that mood of paranoid suspicion, mutual distrust and growing panic so necessary as prelude to Fascism."

"I. F. STONE's Weekly" for October 24, 1953, Volume 1, #38), carries as its feature article under the title "McCARTHY's Hoax and The Real Radar Scandal", STONE's ideas in connection with the current investigation being conducted by Senator JOSEPH R. McCARTHY's committee into possible espionage at the Army Signal Corps research center, Fort Monmouth, New Jersey. In his article STONE explains the sources of the allegations of espionage at Fort Monmouth as follows:

"Racial Friction at Fort Monmouth"

"The real story dimly visible behind the scenes is this. There was a good deal of covert discrimination against Jews in engineering before the war. Many obtained jobs in the Signal Corps in the 30's and have seniority status now. The complainants seem all to have been non-Jews. There was friction, suspicion and jealousy. JULIUS ROSENBERG worked at Fort Monmouth as a civilian specialist in 1942 and 1943. There is little social life at Fort Monmouth and the Jewish engineers there lived an ingrown social life. Associations natural at the time may now be made to appear sinister. . .

"Witnesses have been bullied and threatened, given virtual three degree treatment behind the closed doors. One woman witness was asked whether she did not deserve to get the same treatment as ETHEL ROSENBERG. One man was asked, 'If you had wanted to steal secret documents, could you have done so?' When he replied, 'But I didn't want to steal secret documents,' McCARTHY insisted, 'But if you had wanted to. . .'. One frightened witness seems to have denied knowing ROSENBERG when they in fact shared the same car pool.

"McCARTHY has abused the purpose of executive sessions by giving out (from what little one can learn) fantastically one-sided versions of what occurred. The result has been to spread a nightmareish fantasy across the front pages of the nation's press with McCARTHY as the hero."

A short item in the same issue; (Volume 1, #38), presents the views of STONE in connection with the recent supreme court decision which resulted in the demise of the International Workers Order, an organization designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450. ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~
X Washington T-3, of known reliability, advised that STONE was in contact with one JAMES L. BREWER, an attorney with offices at the above address, in August and September of 1953. (S)(u)

Concerning BREWER the following is set forth:

The Rochester "Times Union" newspaper for October 6, 1940, contained an article identifying JAMES L. BREWER as an attorney for the Communist Party in its suit against radio station WSAY, Rochester, New York, growing out of the radio station's refusal to allow the Communist Party to broadcast through its facilities.

Washington T-4, of known reliability, who had been acquainted with Communist Party affairs in the Rochester, New York area for the preceding ten years, advised on May 1, 1952 that he never knew JAMES BREWER to have been a Communist Party member, but he recalled that BREWER had attended some Communist Party meetings in Rochester in approximately 1945, 1946 and 1947. The informant characterized BREWER as a person who, because of background, pro-Russian attitude and general knowledge of the Soviet Union, could inspire people to rise to almost any cause. (S)(u)

The same informant advised in 1944 that the name JAMES L. BREWER appeared on a list of names in the possession of BERTHA LOWITT, identified by the informant as educational director of the Rochester Community Club of the Communist Party. The purpose of this list and its significance were not known to the informant. (S)(u)

The Rochester "Times Union" newspaper of April 12, 1944, carried an article by JAMES L. BREWER which strongly defended the Communist Party and attacked its enemies with charges of "red-baiting" and "native Fascism".

The March 29, 1944 report of the HCUA states that the Garland Fund was established in 1922 and that it was a major source for the financing of Communist Party enterprises such as the "Daily Worker" and "New Masses", official Communist publications, the Federated Press, Russian Reconstruction Farms and the International Labor Defense. WILLIAM Z. FOSTER, present Chairman of the Communist Party, and SCOTT NEARING, a leading writer for the Party, are identified as having served on the Board of Directors of the Garland Fund.

JAMES ROY NEWMAN
3409 34th Place, NW,
Washington, D. C.

Washington T-1 has advised that on October 24, 1953, STONE met the above person for lunch. They dined together at Jack Hunt's Restaurant in the 1700 block of Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, and were in each other's company from about 12:40 PM to 2:00 PM on that day, according to the informant.

Washington T-33, of unknown reliability, alleged in March, 1946 that among those government employees responsible for the development of atomic energy in the U. S. there was a group with pro-Soviet leanings that was interested in furnishing the Soviet Union with all available information concerning atomic energy.

Washington T-33 said that JAMES R. NEWMAN was the "ring leader of this group". The informant said that through his employment with the Office of War Mobilization and Reconversion; through his close association with DR. EDWARD U. CONDON, Director of the National Bureau of Standards; through his employment with the Senate Committee on Atomic Energy under the late Senator BRIEN MC MAHON and through his contacts with the War Department, NEWMAN had access to practically all information on the atomic energy picture in the U. S.

The New York "Journal American" newspaper of October 5, 1950 contained an article by LESLIE GOULD, one of a series on the late Senator BRIEN MC MAHON of Connecticut. In his article GOULD discussed JAMES ROY NEWMAN who had worked on the staff of the Senate Atomic Energy Committee under MC MAHON. GOULD described NEWMAN as a protege of HENRY WALLACE who later headed the Progressive Party which he described as a pro-Communist movement. He further pointed out that NEWMAN had gone with WALLACE to the "New Republic Magazine" as its

DR. CONDON, according to GOULD, had had contacts with NATHAN GREGORY SILVERMASTER and IGNACE ZLOTOWSKI, both of whom had been named as Communists and a part of a "red espionage system" in testimony before a Congressional Committee.

On April 10, 1947, Washington T-34, of known reliability, advised that IGNACE ZLOTOWSKI on that day had been in the company of JAMES ROY NEWMAN.

RUSSELL ARTHUR NIXON

United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America,
11 East 51st Street,
New York City.

Washington T-35, of known reliability, advised that NIXON had conversed at some length with STONE in Washington on October 13, 1953. The informant recalled that STONE and NIXON were apparently friends and that NIXON attempted to convince STONE that he should give more play in his "Weekly" to certain issues of interest and importance to UERMWA (P)(u)

Washington T-36, of known reliability, has advised that RUSSELL ARTHUR NIXON was known to him as a Communist. Washington T-37, of known reliability, advised in 1950 that RUSSELL ARTHUR NIXON was known to him as a "concealed Communist". Washington T-38, of known reliability, stated in 1952 that there was no doubt in his mind that RUSSELL ARTHUR NIXON was involved in Communist Party underground operations.

SAMUEL J. DIMERIA testified publicly before the HCUA in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on October 15, 1952, to the effect that he met RUSSELL ARTHUR NIXON as a Communist Party member in 1947 at the home of PHIL BART, a Communist Party official in Philadelphia.

An article in the Washington "Evening Star" newspaper of December 8, 1950, states that MISS MARGARET SHIPMAN, a 75 year-old former Massachusetts school teacher then residing in a rooming house at 101 Second Street, NE, Washington, put up $1,500 cash bond to release EARL BROWDER from jail. The article indicated that BROWDER had been indicted on November 27, 1950 on 16 counts of contempt for refusing to answer questions put to him by the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee investigating Communist activity in the Government. He was committed to jail on failure to raise bond.

EARL BROWDER is a former Chairman of the Communist Party, USA.

Records of the Criminal Clerk's Office, U. S. District Court for the District of Columbia reflect that on January 3, 1951, MARGARET M. SHIPMAN, surety in the contempt case of EARL BROWDER, had advised the court of a change of address from 101 Second Street, NE to 125 Fifth Street, NE, Washington, D. C..

This latter address was the residence of DR. FREDERICK A. BLOSSOM and also the address of the World Events Committee.

Washington T-39, of known reliability, has advised that as early as March, 1950, MISS SHIPMAN had been working in DR. BLOSSOM's home, assisting him in connection with the World Events Committee.

Washington T-16 has advised that BLOSSOM has been identified with various phases of the Communist movement for many years. The informant has stated that although BLOSSOM is not a Communist Party member in the card carrying sense, he has followed the dictates of the Communist Party line and belongs to and supports many Communist Party front organizations. The informant has said that the Communist Party would not accept BLOSSOM because he is too forceful and opinionated to be subjected to Communist Party discipline. According to the informant, however, BLOSSOM is an anarchist, completely disloyal to the U. S. and entirely in sympathy with the Soviet Union.

The World Events Committee, 125 Fifth Street, NE, Washington, sponsored lectures by SCOTT NEARING, published a quarterly newsletter written by NEARING and distributed leaflets, pamphlets and books written by him. The Committee also distributed such pro-Communist and pro-Russian literature as "Soviet Russia Today", "New Times", "In Fact", "Southern Patriot" and the "USSR Information Bulletin". BLOSSOM has stated that the Committee's policy on the selection of literature to be distributed was that it must be anti-capitalistic and contain no red baiting.

SCOTT NEARING, lecturer and economist, has in the past advocated in lectures the desirability of replacing the present form of government in the U. S. with the Soviet type of government. NEARING has written that "with the exception of 1927-29" he has never been a Communist Party member.

"Soviet Russia Today" and "In Fact" were cited as Communist fronts by HCUA in its March 29, 1944 report. "New Times" was cited as a Communist publication by the Congressional Committee on Un-American Activities in its May 11, 1948 report. "Southern Patriot" was described by the Congressional Committee on Un-American Activities on June 12, 1947 as the "organ" of the Southern Conference for Human Welfare. The SCHW was cited by the Congressional Committee on Un-American Activities in its report #592 on June 12, 1947, as a Communist Party front. The "USSR Information Bulletin" was an official publication of the Soviet Embassy, Washington, D. C.

Washington T-39, mentioned above, has advised that MARGARET SHIPMAN continued her activity in the affairs of the World Events Committee until about May, 1952, at which time she became quite active in the affairs of the Progressive Party of the District of Columbia.

In May, 1953, Washington T-40, of known reliability, advised that he had heard HELEN SHONICK, a leader in the Progressive Party of the District of Columbia, state that MARGARET SHIPMAN was as active as it was possible for her to be in Progressive Party affairs in Washington, and that she was on the mailing list of all the "Progressive organizations" in Washington. On February 25, 1952, Washington T-41, of known reliability, identified the leaders of the Progressive Party of the District of Columbia as either Communists or Communist Party sympathizers and stated that this organization has never, to the informant's knowledge, opposed any Communist Party issue or program. The informant stated that on occasion resolutions have been adopted by the Progressive Party of the District of Columbia which have been introduced by various individuals at the direction of the Communist Party. Washington T-42, of known reliability, advised in June, 1952 that he had learned that MARGARET SHIPMAN had in 1950 donated $100 to the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee. The JAFRC has been designated by the Attorney General of the U. S. pursuant to Executive Order 10450. (S)(u)

In 1930 she organized the "Moscow Daily News", the first English language newspaper in Russia, and later served as its Associate Editor. In February, 1949, STRONG was expelled from Russia and she returned to the U. S. In March, 1949, upon interview by Bureau Agents, STRONG admitted applying for Communist Party membership in 1936 but stated she does not know that she ever became a member. Since January, 1951, STRONG has published a monthly newsletter "Today" described by informants as pro-Soviet in tone and critical of current U. S. foreign policy.

It is noted that the studios of WTTG are located on the Tenth floor of the Raleigh Hotel. Washington T-46 identified WILLIAMS as former Administrator of the National Youth Administration and presently publisher of the "Southern Farm and Home Magazine" and President of the Southern Conference Educational Fund.

On August 3, 1948, WHITTAKER CHAMBERS, an admitted former Communist, testified before the HCUA to the effect that he was not personally acquainted with AUBREY WILLIS WILLIAMS but that he had heard WILLIAMS discussed by persons whom he knew to be high in the Communist Party as a friend of the Party.

Washington T-47, of known reliability, made available letters on the stationery of the Committee for Alabama of the Southern Conference for Human Welfare dated June 9, and September 4, 1947, which named the officers of this organization. Shown as chairman of the Committee for Alabama, SCHW, was AUBREY WILLIAMS. The SCHW has been previously characterized in this report.

The February, 1952 issue of the "Southern Patriot", official organ of the SCHW, carried an article concerning the Southern Conference Educational Fund. Records of the HCUA contain a printed program listing AUBREY WILLIAMS as a sponsor of a national conference of the American Committee for the Protection of the Foreign Born held in Cleveland, Ohio on October 25 and 26, 1947.

The American Committee for the Protection of the Foreign Born has been designated by the Attorney General of the U. S. pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

In an article on Page 2 of the January 28, 1938 issue of the "Daily Worker", AUBREY WILLIAMS is listed as one of the sponsors at the New York State Model Legislature of Youth held January 28 through 30, 1938 at New York City. The article stated that the Model Legislature was sponsored by the American Youth Congress. The AYC has been designated by the Attorney General of the U. S. pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On March 13 and 14, 1950, during the testimony of MATTHEW CVETIC before the HCUA, certain exhibits were introduced which included seven letters written during the period September through December, 1948 on letterheads of the Civil Rights Congress, 205 East 42nd Street, New York City. AUBREY WILLIAMS was listed on these letterheads as a National Vice Chairman. The CRC has been designated by the Attorney General of the U. S. pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

the address of the National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case. Concerning this committee the following is set forth ~~SECRET~~ (X)

On March 29, 1951, JULIUS ROSENBERG and his wife, ETHEL, were convicted in the U. S. District Court for the Southern District of New York of conspiracy to commit espionage for the Soviet Union. On June 19, 1953, both were executed at Sing Sing Prison at Ossining, New York.

On January 3, 1952, it was announced that the National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case had been formed. Mr. HOWARD RUSHMORE, writer for the "New York Journal American" newspaper, made available a copy of a press release announcing the formation of this committee, which was dated December 31, 1951. This committee is headed by JOSEPH BRAININ who is described as a journalist and author. With this committee he holds the rank of Chairman while DAVID ALMAN is the Executive Secretary. The purpose of this committee was to raise money for the defense of the ROSENBERGS and to arouse public sympathy for them.

The "American Legion Magazine" for July, 1953, in an article entitled "They Scream For Justice" by S. ANDHIL FINEBERG, states "A Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case was created in January, 1952. . . the Chairman of the committee is a veteran party liner, JOSEPH BRAININ. The Executive Secretary is DAVID ALMAN." This article states that the list of sponsors whose names appear on the committee stationery and literature ". . . is a typical Communist front list, with old reliables and some newcomers. . . The Rosenberg Committee was well aware that it could not succeed without the aid of non Communists and anti-Communists. No one would be impressed by the fact that Communists condemned the death sentence of espionage agents who stole atomic secrets for Russia. The problem was how to inveigle others into their camp. At the start they suffered two reverses. They tried to picture the case as one in which civil liberties were denied and as an instance of anti-Semitism. They were rebuffed on both scores. . . The committee was energetic and persistent despite all discouragements. It could count on Communist dominated organizations to send their members to its meetings and to lure others into those gatherings. . .
